Before

FROM HOMELESS DOG TO

Super Hero

Brownie arrived at Foothills Animal Shelter after his owner suddenly passed away. He received his medical and behavioral assessment, and it became clear that Brownie needed a home that could properly direct his high energy and anxiety. Not only did he find his perfect home, but he saved his new family from a house fire by alerting them with his big bark! We as humans might save homeless animals, but in turn, they often save us right back—sometimes, literally. Now, Brownie is an accomplished athlete—from dock diving to lure coursing, this pup can do it all.
