Evacuation FAQ's

- How can I support Foothills Animal Shelter and evacuated animals?
 - Visit FoothillsAnimalShelter.org to make a life-saving donation.
- Where can I take large animals, such as horses, during an evacuation?
 - Jefferson County Fairgrounds is the site for all large animals. Visit jeffco.us/fairgrounds for more information.
- If I am not home during an evacuation, how can I get my animals?
 - Do not attempt to enter the evacuation site. Contact the Jefferson County Animal Response Team and notify them your animals are in the area. Visit jeffco.us/468/Animal-Evacuations for more information.
- How can I be reunited with my missing pet?
 - If you become separated during an evacuation, check FoothillsAnimalShelter.org to see if your animal is at the Shelter. You can also post on Nextdoor and local Facebook Groups.
- If I need placement for my pet, what should I do?
 - Foothills Animal Shelter will provide temporary placement for animals from mandatory evacuation areas free of charge. You can also place pets in the care of a trusted family member or friend, pet friendly hotels, and boarding facilities.
- How do I know if my area is being evacuated?
 - Emergency services often perform door-to-door evacuations. You can also sign up for emergency notifications at:
<https://www.jeffco.us/473/Emergency-Notifications>
